Substance Abuse Poster Contest

Our council sponsor a Substance Abuse Poster Contest. It was open to most of the parishes that we serve but only Ascension chose to participate. While the contest has two divisions for ages 8 to 11 and 12 to 14 we only received entries from the 12-14 age group at Ascension. We received entries from Marena Brenzel, Madeline Finney, Morgan Hubbs, Lindsey Jackel, Chrissy Kaninberg, Cameron Mayzet-Koontz Colin O'Bryan and Lindsay Stuber.

The winning poster was submitted by Morgan Hubbs, who received a $25 prize for being the winner from Ascension and a $50 prize for being the Council winner. Morgan's poster has been submitted to the Kentucky State Council.

Grand Knight's Letter

Brothers,

Spring is upon us even though it snowed last night! It seems like it has been a long winter and we're ready to enjoy some sunshine. Because Spring Break is next week and all of Louisville will NOT be in Kentucky, we have moved our regular meeting from April 5th to the 12th.

I would like to congratulate Wade Poole for being recognized with an award at the Annual Right-to-Life Banquet on March 4th. It is a privilege to have Wade in our Council and chairman of our Right To Life committee.

Bike Night is kicking off again on April 14th at PGK Dale Anderson's home at 7 p.m. There is a great need for bicycles by Catholic Charities for both the youth and adults. I have received several bikes already from Knights in other councils that had learned of our project and wanted to help. If you know of anyone who has a bicycle that is not being used or has been out-grown, please let us know.

The Kentucky State K of C Convention will be May 13th – 15th here in Louisville and is always a real learning experience and a fun time. Let me know if you are interested in attending just for the Mass on Saturday with the Archbishop.

Vivat Jesus,

GK Dick Scherrer

Insurance Matters

No Other Financial Product Can Do What Whole Life Can

By Thomas P. Smith Jr. Executive Vice President(Agencies & Marketing)

One of the many elements of permanent insurance — whole life for example — is the accumulation of cash values within the policy. While we never run around recommending that these values be withdrawn, or borrowed, the fact is they are available. When you borrow against the cash in the policy, you diminish the value of the policy until the borrowed funds are returned. But when I talk with members about the features of permanent life insurance, I certainly include this feature in the conversation. When you pay your permanent life insurance premiums, the policy begins to accumulate a reserve — usually not until the policy is in force for a couple of years. The company sets aside this reserve, which gradually and over time grows, depending on the size of the policy and the premiums paid.

During the life of the policy — and your life — this cash value is always available to you. When you talk about it with your agent, he will help you determine how much is available, always keeping in mind that we want the policy to remain in force (so you should never take out 100 percent of the cash and cause the policy to lapse). He will then work with you to complete the necessary paperwork that would be forwarded here to New Haven where the request is processed promptly. The cash is usually delivered quickly and with no questions asked. The agent will also strongly suggest a repayment plan, so that, over time, you can restore the cash value to its full amount for two reasons: first, so that the policy returns to full value should death occur, and so that the cash is there for you again should the need arise.

This column is not usually used for lessons in how life insurance works, but this is a critical issue. With so many credit outlets tightening the reins, and money becoming harder to find, borrowing against a permanent life insurance policy can be an attractive option when a financial emergency occurs. If you have found yourself wondering where you can get the money you need to a) fix the roof; b)fix the furnace; c) fix the car; or d) fill in the blank, permanent insurance could have been the solution. There are lots of features that distinguish permanent insurance from term insurance. The accumulation of cash value, which can be accessed and used in the event of an emergency quickly and painlessly, is just one.

When your agent talks to you about the value of whole life, remember this: permanent, cash value, level premium life insurance is a unique product. I can think of no other financial product — none — that does what it can do, including helping your family out during a financial emergency.

2011 RIGHT TO LIFE EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION AWARD

Whatever pro-life event you attend, whether a prayers for life service or other activity, you will almost always see a tall, slender, dark haired gentleman, usually with his wife and children by his side, in attendance. This brief description is probably enough to identify that super energized individual and organizer, Wade Poole III.

Wade grew up in Louisville with his parents, Wade and June Poole, and two brothers. Wade went to St. Xavier High School and on to college first to Bellarmine then on to finish at University of Louisville with a business degree. He is an entrepreneur starting his current business as an insurance broker in 1985, Integrated Benefits, an employee benefits company. He is hands on, advocating for his clients to the insurance companies.

Wade's first wife, Debbie, died of Leukemia. He later met and married Nancy. They have adopted four children from the Philippines. There are two girls ages 16 & 17 and two boys ages 14 & 15. He also has three sponsored children in the Philippines through Child Fund.

Wade is a very caring, giving person. He wants to help any way he can spreading God's love to others through his little ministry. He had the book My Journey to Birth published with the author Gale Crush. He gives the book out and any other spiritual information the can. He gives witness at the abortuary. He sends many informational emails on respect for life matters to his lengthy list of interested friends. Wade is very generous financially to Right to Life and supportive of all of their efforts. He has had at least one outstanding role model, his mom, June, who served for a few years as a board member of Right To Life of Louisville. He is a member of St. Margaret Mary Church and joined our council in June 2008. Naturally he serves as the Chairman of our council's Right To Life Committee.

Deadline for submissions for the May newsletter is April 22, 2011
