Grand Knight's Letter

Brothers,

I would like you to remember Ed Miller and his family in your prayers on the passing of his wife, Carol.

The State's motto for the Knights this year is "I am my brother's keeper". This fits right in with yesterday's gospel that if we have a problem with our brother, we should discuss it with him. As Knights we need to reach out to our brothers in both good and rough times.

September 10th is a busy day! "Walk for Life" registration at 9 AM at St Martin of Tours and 3K walk with Archbishop Kurtz at 10 AM. Repair Affair with St Agnes crew at 8:30 AM at 4224 Vermont Ave.

At the Special Meeting held on August 30th, the members voted to request approval from the State Deputy and Supreme to change the location of the monthly council meetings to St Bernadette parish. This action is being taken in an attempt to keep the council growing. We are committed to continue serving all five parishes (Ascension, St Albert, St Bernadette, St Margaret Mary and St Patrick) as we have done since 2002. We must all recruit new members for our council to replace members that transfer or go to our heavenly father. On that note, I would like welcome from California, Rob Daleo, at St Patrick.

Don't forget we have 2 more Bike Nights left this year: September 29th and October 20th. We can always use more workers – 7 pm at Dale Anderson garage!

Dick Scherrer, GK

Insurance Matters

Life Insurance: Now More Than Ever

What a turbulent few years it's been. Even as the Great Recession has eased, many of us are still trying to get back on solid financial footing. For some, the recovery hasn't amounted to much. The employment market is still weak and home prices continue to fall. Gas prices are high and consumer confidence is low. Through it all, one source of financial security has remained strong, however, and that's life insurance.

A Financial Product That Has Held its Value

While so many aspects of people's financial lives have been shaken, life insurance continues to do exactly what it was designed to—serve as the foundation of a family's financial security. If you own a term life policy, the death benefit has remained the same through the ups and downs of the economy. Owners of whole life insurance have seen their cash values rise when the value of many of their other financial assets have slipped. As the tumultuous experience of the last few years has demonstrated, life insurance is one of the few things that provides certainty in uncertain times.

Make Sure Your Family Is Protected

You may be feeling less financially secure than before the Great Recession began. Your retirement accounts may have rebounded, but you may have been forced to sell your home at a loss. You may have found a new job, but at a lower salary. Some days you might feel like it's all you can do to put food on the table and keep a roof over your head.

But what if you died tomorrow?

No one wants to think in those terms, but given that many of us are in the financial rebuilding stage, you need to ask yourself, "Would my family be OK financially without me in the picture?" Life insurance is one of the few guarantees your family could rely on to maintain their quality of life.

As difficult as it may seem to look beyond the bills due at the end of the month, you should make it a priority to either maintain your current life insurance or purchase a policy if you don't have one. It will provide an anchor of stability for your family finances, ensuring that your loved ones will be financially secure when you die.

Start Here—Now

If you're not sure where to start, your local field agent is the best place to start. He can meet with you and perform a free financial review, which will provide you with an analysis of your life insurance needs and he will help you determine the right solution for your specific needs. Do it today—your family's financial future is too important to leave to chance.

Schedule an appointment with your local field agent today!

Knight Update

Mike Welch spoke recently with JoAnn Fiorini. She wanted us to know she is doing fine. Her kidney rejection medication is working as it should, and all other health issues have abated.

She still misses Frank, and thinks about him daily. She wishes all the knights her best; and to please keep her in our prayers.

Deadline for submissions for the October newsletter is September 23, 2011
